

Leadership Adirondack

Leadership Adirondack—
streamlined to suit your schedule and change your life.

It begins with an overnight Leadership Retreat, lakeside, at the historic Fort William Henry Resort. It concludes with a graduation where participants are celebrated for the difference they've made and will make for years to come in our community. In between, participants will get an insiders look into our community; its economy, history, educational system, health and human service needs.

Class of 2010-11 Program Schedule:

Oct. 5-6: Executive Leadership Retreat and Team-Building at the Fort William Henry Resort, in Lake George, facilitated by Kay Walter, of Teams on Purpose. The retreat begins with lunch at 12:00 noon on the 5th and concludes at 11:59 a.m. on the 6th. Overnight accommodations for all participants are required and provided with learning and networking opportunities throughout the evening and early morning.

The following class sessions run from 9:00 am to 3:30 p.m. unless otherwise noted. More details about precise class locations to be provided later.

Oct. 14: Our region's history, culture, arts and tourism sectors

Oct. 28: Our k-12 and higher educational system as well as workforce development needs

Nov. 4: What drives our region's economic engine? Today and tomorrow.

Nov. 18: A day of caring as participants volunteer to make a difference at area nonprofits

Dec. 9: How to be a good corporate citizen and responsible volunteer.

Jan. 13, 2011: The opportunities and challenges facing our region's healthcare system.

Jan. 27, 2011: In government—the world is run by those who show up.

* Some of these dates may be subject to modification with a final schedule provided to all class participants at the October 5th and 6th overnight Leadership Retreat.
